Making Connections in Mobile

Mobile*Connect* is an overview of the Mobile region designed to acquaint new-to-Mobile professionals and business leaders with Mobile's history, economy and quality of life. In addition to meeting and connecting with some of the area's key decision makers, participants will find contacts and resources that will enable them to more effectively connect with their new community.

Who Should Attend?

The program is a unique opportunity for professionals and business leaders and their spouses who are new to the Mobile area. A participant's company must be a member of the Mobile Area Chamber of Commerce.

Curriculum

Topics are selected to help participants understand the community in which they are now living and working. Each series consists of three sessions held over several months.

Sessions engage historians, elected officials, and business and community leaders who are excited to share their knowledge, vision and love of the Mobile area with our new neighbors.

I am new to Mobile. How do I sign up?

Contact Katrina Dewrell at kdewrell@mobilechamber.com or 251-431-8611 for additional information or to register. There is no cost to participate, as the program is sponsored by Partners for Growth investor companies.

Mobile*Connect* Topics

Place and History

Economy and Government

Arts and Culture

How do I meet other professionals and business leaders in Mobile?

Each MobileConnect session includes a brief opening reception with Mobile area business people and community leaders, as well as others who have recently moved to the area. This informal exchange offers opportunities to make connections and learn about your new community.

Mobile is a friendly community rich in history and beauty, and its people are committed to a strong and sustainable economy and quality of life. We are proud of our active business community and its contributions to a vibrant Mobile. We look forward to getting acquainted and introducing you to Mobile.

*Bill Sisson, President and CEO
Mobile Area Chamber of Commerce*

MobileConnect was a great introduction to our new community by people who really understand Mobile. The experience was unique and enjoyable, and we have a deeper knowledge and appreciation for the Mobile region as a result.

*Tony G. Waldrop PhD., President
University of South Alabama*

Getting new-to-Mobile professionals and business leaders engaged quickly smooths the transition into a new community.

*Henry Morrisette, MobileConnect Co-Chair
Hand Arendall LLC*

Connecting with locals who were truly excited to share their love of the area was unexpected and delightful.
