

For Immediate Release
May 17, 2018

For More Information Contact:
Susan Rak-Blanchard
Director, Communications and Marketing
251.431.8641

Pork & Politics in the Park set for Tuesday, May 22

The Mobile Area Chamber will host its popular Pork & Politics in the Park next Tuesday, May 22 at USS ALABAMA Battleship Memorial Park aircraft pavilion from 6 to 8 p.m.

The event took a one-year break and is being held in 2018 to give Mobilians the opportunity to network with candidates running for a number of significant offices up for election, including state, federal and local offices.

Pork & Politics is set two weeks prior to the state primary election (June 5). If needed a primary election run-off is scheduled for July 17 and the general election takes place on Nov. 6.

Mobile's unique and casual political rally features a pork bar-b-que dinner included in the ticket price of $25. For reservations, contact Mallory Tyson at 251-431-8621 or mtyson@mobilechamber.com.

The event is an approved by the state of Alabama Ethics Commission for participation by elected officials and government employees.

Corporate sponsors are AARP., AT&T, Austal USA, C-Spire, Chevron, Hargrove Engineers + Constructors, Spire USS ALABAMA Battleship Memorial Park and Artcraft Press
Catering provided by Sonny's Real Pit BBQ
Refreshments provided Gulf Distributing and Buffalo Rock Pepsi

###