REAL ESTATE

Mobile is a great place to live, and it's also a great place to buy a house.

In the third quarter of 2016, the median cost of a home purchased in Mobile County was $135,400, well below the national median of $240,900.

Overall, Mobile also has a much lower cost of living than most cities its size, and is among the 20 lowest out of 80 mid-size U.S. metropolitan areas according to the Council for Community and Economic Research survey.

When it comes to housing options, Mobile has it all in a range of affordable prices – downtown living, rural solitude, historic neighborhoods, modern subdivisions, waterfront homes and suburban apartment complexes.

There is a selection of existing houses in Mobile's downtown and midtown neighborhoods, in seven historic residential districts, ranging from mansions to Victorian cottages. Farther away from the central business district, suburban neighborhoods offer the options of rolling hills or quiet cul de sacs.

New houses also are available both in town and in the suburbs. New subdivisions, with a variety of house plans, are under development throughout the area, and new housing options downtown can put you a short walk from the central business district.

ENTERTAINMENT

IN A CITY BORN TO
CELEBRATE
GOOD TIMES ARE
EASY TO FIND

TenSixtyFive, a free music festival, brings thousands downtown to enjoy musical performances ranging from rock to jazz to gospel.

In a city born to celebrate, there's never a shortage of entertainment options. It stands to reason that the city known for bringing Mardi Gras to America would know a thing or two about having a good time.

The list of live music venues is growing throughout the Mobile area, but downtown Mobile serves as the city's entertainment center – with a lively mix of restaurants, nightclubs, bars, galleries and theaters.

Dauphin Street and the historic Saenger Theatre anchor the district known as LoDa, for Lower Dauphin Street. The renovated Saenger attracts major national touring acts, including Wynton Marsalis, Lyle Lovett, Alabama Shakes, Buddy Guy and Norah Jones, and is home to the Mobile Symphony. Local clubs feature live music every night of the week.

A wide variety of restaurants – from elegant to casual – are popular meeting places for dinner before heading off for an evening of entertainment, music and fun.

Mobile recently joined many other cities in creating designated entertainment districts, allowing people to mingle freely and carry beverages between establishments.

TenSixtyFive is a free music festival in downtown Mobile attracting thousands of music lovers to hear three days of country, rock, jazz, R&B, rap, gospel and more.

Other festivals such as LoDa ArtWalk bring crowds of people to downtown streets to sample what the city has to offer.

But nothing tops the excitement of Mardi Gras season when crowds fill downtown for three weeks of parades. French soldiers and settlers first celebrated Mardi Gras in Mobile in 1703, and we've been perfecting the party ever since.

FOOD

SEAFOOD AND FARM-FRESH PRODUCE SEASON OUR SOUTHERN COOKING!

Food is what brings Mobile's diverse culture together. A strong sense of community is built by bringing folks together for a good time over exceptional food and drinks. There's always a pot of gumbo simmering on a stove somewhere, and a great meal is easy to find.

When visitors to Mobile think of local food, they automatically think of seafood. But locals know our tables are famous for a lot more than some of the world's best shrimp and oysters. Mobile also takes great pride in a rich variety of Southern produce grown by local farmers. Farmers markets, vegetable and fruit stands and curb markets make it easy and affordable to enjoy local produce.

Surrounded by fertile farmland in both Mobile and Baldwin counties and blessed with a long growing season, Mobile enjoys a long list of homegrown treats. Summers are filled with vine-ripe tomatoes, strawberries, watermelons, field peas, cantaloupes, okra, butter beans, peaches, squash and the royalty of local produce – Silver Queen corn. Cooler weather brings turnips, collards, persimmons and citrus crops, such as satsumas and lemons.

Mobile's growing restaurant scene includes classic seafood spots, farm-to-table restaurants and a wide variety of international and ethnic cuisine.
