The Export Alabama Alliance is a seamless network of international trade agencies with the fundamental objective of helping Alabama companies grow their business internationally. This strong alliance of local, state and federal organizations works together to develop and coordinate programs to facilitate the export of Alabama's goods and services overseas.

In addition to jointly promoting sanctioned overseas events, such as trade missions and trade shows, the Export Alabama Alliance counsels and assists companies in all aspects of global commerce, from how to assess a firm's export readiness, to developing a marketing plan, to export financing, credit insurance and documentation, to delivery and payment. Workshops and seminars, as well as individual counseling sessions, are coordinated by the Export Alabama Alliance to help educate and prepare Alabama companies to compete in the global marketplace. The Alabama International Trade Resource Guide provides information on these organizations. Most services are free of charge, while others require a nominal fee.

In addition to the Export Alabama Alliance, there are organizations that provide specific services in the export process. These organizations are found in the Specialized Services category of the Alabama International Trade Resource Guide. The third category of listings contains other resources that support international trade efforts.

We believe that you will find this guide to be a valuable resource and we encourage you to become acquainted with Alabama's trade organizations and the services they offer. If you have not already done so, we invite you to become involved in the state's international trade community.

ALABAMA INTERNATIONAL TRADE CENTER

The Alabama International Trade Center (AITC) operates as a federal-state partnership program between the University of Alabama and the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), promoting the official SBA trade and export financing programs in Alabama. The AITC is a member of the Alabama Small Business Development Center Network, a statewide network of ten management and technical assistance centers.

Established in 1979, the AITC works on a one-on-one, confidential basis to help small businesses enter and sell in export markets. Services include:

- Customized international market research
- In-house training on export procedures
- Export financing and capital access

The center focuses on new-to-export firms, state industries with export potential, and tracks export results. The Center supports the Alabama Department of Agriculture and the Southern U.S. Trade Association by providing technical assistance to value added agricultural firms for export market development. In cooperation with the Alabama Department of Commerce, International Trade Division, the AITC is designated as a Regional Export Promotion Program (REPP) of the U.S. Export- Import Bank for the State of Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM BUSINESS ALLIANCE

The Birmingham Business Alliance (BBA) is the lead regional economic development agency for the seven-county Birmingham metropolitan region (Bibb, Blount, Chilton, Jefferson, St. Clair, Shelby and Walker counties). The BBA's international trade program encourages and assists companies throughout Central Alabama to take advantage of significant global business opportunities, which complements the BBA's programs to market and promote the region and state as a destination for foreign direct investment.

In addition to its own international business programs, the BBA works closely with federal, state and local trade partners to plan and facilitate seminars and group training sessions that highlight the mechanics of exporting to foreign countries as well as industry specific export opportunities.

The BBA takes a leadership role in international trade by promoting the region's economic development and business opportunities in the following ways:

- Working with the Alabama Department of Commerce to diversify Alabama's export base concentration on small and medium-sized businesses within the energy, bioscience, advanced manufacturing and information technology industry sectors
- Supporting the U.S. Department of Commerce, University of Alabama International Trade Center, and other trade multipliers to facilitate and promote international trade opportunities
- Presenting trade seminars in cooperation with the Export Alabama Alliance
- Hosting and coordinating activities for international diplomatic officials and business prospects
- Sponsoring and co-sponsoring information sessions on state-led trade missions
- Conducting marketing outreach to selected international trade multipliers, including foreign consulates and other trade organizations
- Working with individual companies to address their export opportunities and challenges
- Processing Certificates of Origin for local manufacturers

BUSINESS COUNCIL OF ALABAMA

Alabama's foremost voice for business, the BCA is a non-partisan statewide business association representing the interests and concerns of nearly 1 million working Alabamians through its member companies and its partnership with the Chamber of Commerce Association of Alabama.

The BCA is Alabama's exclusive affiliate to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers.

With the help of the Alabama legislature, which in 2011 — for the first time — was truly committed to addressing the concerns of business, the BCA was instrumental in securing passage of a number of real reforms in the areas of:

- Tax credits for small business
- Job creation
- Incentives for economic development
- Ethics reform
- Positive changes in our public education system

On the federal level, a BCA priority is supporting efforts to enact fair trade legislation that will enhance Alabama's growth and export capability in the globally competitive marketplace.

FOREIGN TRADE ZONES

Foreign Trade Zones (FTZs) are designated sites licensed by the U.S. Foreign Trade Zones (FTZ) Board. While within Zones, all goods (both foreign and domestic) are treated as if they are outside U.S. Customs territory. FTZs are supervised by U.S. Customs through occasional audits and site visits.

The purpose of the U.S. Foreign Trade Zones program is to stimulate economic growth and development in the United States. In many instances, the duty on foreign parts incorporated into a product manufactured in an FTZ and subsequently entered into the U.S. commerce is assessed at the rate that applies to the finished product, rather than on its foreign parts and components. No duty is assessed on the value of U.S. parts, labor, overhead or profit. Thus, the U.S. Foreign Trade Zones program serves as a remedy for U.S.-based manufacturers who find themselves at a disadvantage when they are assessed duties on parts that are imported as part of their manufacturing process that serves the U.S. market.

Foreign Trade Zones are sponsored by qualified public or private corporations, which may operate the facilities themselves or contract for the operation with public and private firms. Many FTZ projects include an industrial park site with lots on which zone users can construct their own facilities. U.S. Foreign Trade Zones offer a number of benefits to zone users. These include:

- Deferral of customs duties on imports, not yet processed, shipped into the domestic market
- Availability of leasable storage/distribution space to users in general warehouse-type buildings, with access to various modes of transportation
- Operational flexibility, including storage, exhibition, assembly, manufacture and processing of merchandise
- Exemption from state/local inventory taxes on foreign/domestic goods held for export
- Elimination of duties on goods re-exported from FTZs
- Elimination of duty on waste, scrap and yield loss
- Relief from irrational duty rate relationships
- Substantial savings on merchandise processing fees with weekly entry procedure

INTERNATIONAL FREIGHT FORWARDERS

Forwarders act as shipping agents for the exporter and handle the execution of cargo to its international destination. Forwarders quote shipping rates and schedules based on the terms of the export transaction between the seller and buyer and handle all phases of the shipping process. Many freight forwarders are located near airports or ocean port facilities. Many also serve as customs brokers, handling import and export of cargo.

Services include:

- Handling all shipping documents
- Obtaining quotes on shipping costs
- Arranging for and booking of space on transport vessels
- Presenting documents to the bank
- Handling of the loading of cargo onto the carrier
- Monitoring shipments
- Following through delivery of product at export destination based on specifications in export/shipping documents

FOREIGN EMBASSIES, CONSULATES AND TRADE OFFICES

Foreign governments maintain diplomatic/consular and trade offices throughout the world to represent their governments. They are there to assist citizens traveling or residing in their consular district. In addition to promoting their country to the rest of the world, these offices also assist with trade and maintain positive relations at both the political and personal levels. Duties traditionally include issuing and renewing passports and other official documents, helping travelers in distress, signing death certificates, legalizing or delivering official documents, and assisting travelers who have trouble with local law enforcement or immigration authorities.

Selected offices having jurisdiction over the state of Alabama are shown below. For countries not listed, please contact the Alabama Department of Commerce's International Trade Division.
