

BRADLEY BYRNE

Mobile
Chamber

PRESIDENT AND CEO

Bradley Byrne has been named the next president and chief executive officer of the Mobile Chamber. He has more than 30 years of experience as an attorney in private practice and more than two decades of public service. He is widely regarded as a thought and action leader who gets things done.

Bradley spent four terms in the U.S. House of Representatives serving on the Armed Services Committee and the Education and Labor Committee, where he chaired the Workforce Protections Subcommittee. He was appointed by two Speakers to the prestigious Rules Committee.

In Congress, Bradley was known as a fierce supporter of business and industry, often leading on important issues where his experience in labor law, workforce training, and education policy gave him a unique perspective. Bradley has led initiatives that have increased access to education and job training, benefiting Alabama's workforce and businesses alike.

Prior to serving in Congress, Bradley was an elected member of the Alabama State Board of Education and the Alabama State Senate and was appointed as the Chancellor of Alabama's two-year college system. He also chaired Alabama's Workforce Planning Council.

As a lawyer, Bradley has represented numerous clients before the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA). As a member of Congress, he frequently dealt with these agencies and with the Department of Labor, including its Wage and Hour Division.

Bradley is married to Rebecca Byrne, who is the president and CEO of the Community Foundation of South Alabama, and together they have four adult children.
