Mobile Chamber Releases Nonpartisan Election Guide for August 26 Municipal Races

MOBILE, Ala. – The Mobile Chamber has released its 2025 Election Guide, a nonpartisan resource designed to help voters make informed decisions in the upcoming municipal election on August 26.

The guide focuses on the mayoral and city council races that will directly shape the future of Mobile. It includes unedited candidate responses, updated voting districts and polling locations, important election deadlines and helpful tools for navigating the voting process.

“Mobile’s future starts at the ballot box,” said Bradley Byrne, Mobile Chamber president and CEO. “We believe informed voters are essential to strong communities. This guide was created to help citizens understand where candidates stand on the issues that matter most, especially when it comes to economic growth, workforce development, infrastructure and quality of life.”

The Chamber invited all mayoral and city council candidates to respond to a set of questions. Candidate submissions appear exactly as received, offering voters a direct view of each candidate’s priorities. In addition to the guide, the Chamber is launching its “Meet the Candidates” social media series highlighting each candidate’s responses.

While the Mobile Chamber does not endorse any candidate, it is committed to providing nonpartisan information to equip voters with the tools needed to participate in the democratic process.

Voters can access the full guide and candidate responses at <https://thebusinessview.com/mobile-chambers-2025-election-guide-city-council-and-mayoral-races/>.

This year marks the first municipal election under new voting districts, so residents are encouraged to verify their district and polling location before heading to the polls.
